At 371/2a.—An importer's samples of striped and corded Japanese Dress Silks for the Spring season of 1900. The period for orders is closed. We take the sample pieces and offer them to you, a year in advance, at one-fourth off next year's prices. They'll be 50c. Different from any heretofore shown. Choice colorings.

At 40c.—Lyons Printed India Silks, very desirable colors and patterns. Had them, before. Sold them out. Got more. Here they are. Well worth 55c.

At 50c.—Entirely new Fancy Taffeta Silks.

Nineteen latest color combinations in corded stripes. Difficult to describe their beauty or comprehend their cheapness, for they are really worth 85c.

At 371/2a.—An importer's samples of exquisite colorings, including the newest combinations of blue and white. The entire lot is vital with freshness and beauty. Eighty-five cents was the previous price for the great majority of them.

At 50c.—Plain black frosted silks, now so popular for dresses, waists, petticoats, linings, foundations—a universal fabric, good for everyuse. The low valuation is 85c.

Silk Remnants.—To be quickly in the remnant stock is a crown of glory to a fancy dress textile. Silk remnants are the aristocracy of our silk store. The small quantities explain the half prices. We have 1050 ends varying from five-eighths of a yard to fifteen yards. Sold only by the piece. Some are dress patterns, some are conditions we must meet triffes.

Made Up Carpets at Remnant Prices

It is lucky for carpet buyers when we put large room sized rugs, that are sometimes sold at 38c., ready to lay on the floors, made from various carpets, complete with borders. The carpet is marked at remnant cost. Cutting, fitting and sewing go for nothing.

Here is a hint of their cheapness-many sizes and qualities other than the following:

WILTON—12 ft. 9 in. by 8 ft. 7 in., $31, would cost $54.98, if bought by the yard.

AXMINSTER—12 ft. 6 in. by 9 ft. 6 in., $23, would cost $34.50 if bought by the yard.

VELVET—12 ft. by 9 ft., $17, would cost $31.97, if bought by the yard.
